Coaching

LegalBizDev coaching programs have a proven track record of helping lawyers to increase business development results. Programs are customized to fit each individual's practice, personality, and schedule. We help lawyers to focus their limited marketing time on the activities that are most likely to lead to new engagements. We also offer special coaching programs for litigators and for lawyers affected by the down economy.

Webinars and workshops

Our course Legal business development: Basic principles and best practices is built around five independent modules:

- Six ways to increase results from your limited marketing time
- How to protect and increase business with current clients
- How to find new clients: From prospecting to closing
- How to increase results from speaking, writing and networking
- Seven steps to your personal action plan

Lawyers can complete the course in five one hour webinars, a one day customized workshop in-house, or by listening to audio CDs in The LegalBizDev Success Kit. Other modules can also be added to the course to meet the unique needs of your firm. Finally, we offer a customized course entitled Legal business development for associates, to help associates understand the tactics that best fit each stage of their career.
